8. Happy/Sad Dollars:
 - a. Pat was sad that she has to leave early because of her school's Volunteer Tea this morning.
 - b. Nikki is happy she is leaving for the Bahamas
 - c. Mary isn't sure why she is happy, but she is. I think Psychologists have a name for this but who really knows.
 - d. Stephanie is really happy that the WC Police participated in the Baker to Vegas run but her brother in law, Travis had apparently had a handicap. He also had to pull a hamstring on his leg.
 - e. Chris is happy we are considering an evening meeting.
 - f. Bill is sad that he only had $1.00 in his pocket.
 - g. Kerry was really happy she had a great promotion at San Jose Charter Academy
 - h. Larua is was happy Brad had a great time in Hawaii.
9. Information/Discussion:
 - i. We sang Happy Birthday to Stephanie.
 - ii. We have Adopt a Park at Cameron Park Saturday, 3/29 at 9am at Cameron Park. There was some discussion that it might be postponed and Brad would be contacting everyone if it were. (Note, it wasn't)
 - iii. Nikki's San Dimas LL Pancake breakfast has been moved to later in April or early May. The date will be set once we know when the Kiwanis Pancake Trailer is available. The most likely dates are May 10 or 17.
 - iv. Brad mentioned that we need another golf meeting.
 - v. Brad and Ken attended the West Covina Coordinating Council meeting and met with leaders from a variety of other service clubs and discussed ways to improve communication and coordination of events.
 1. The city will be the agency that publishes a list of service clubs, contacts, dates and hours of meetings as well as upcoming events.
 2. The Japanese Community Center was having their annual Cherry Blossom Festival on Saturday, March 29 at South Hills Plaza starting at noon.
 3. Marcy's is sponsoring a playground at Walmerado Park and from March 7-31 any donations made at Macy's will be matched by them to go towards replacing park equipment.
 4. MDA will be sponsoring their July 3-4 Celebration at Edgewood HS and would like others to participate.
 5. The Lion's "Night on the Town" is May 21st at the Lakes.
 6. WC Relay for Life is May 31-June 1 at Edgewood Park.
 7. St. Christopher's will hold their Spring Festival, April 11-13 and the have offered us a booth for free if we would like to promote our club or run a game for a fundraiser
 8. The WC Summer Concerts Series begins July 10
